CDMC Treasure Hunt Report - By Brian Hodges

After the recent death of Jackie's Dad she decided to take her mum down to her brothers in Devon for the x-mas holidays. This gave me the chance to build a new team for Vince's treasure hunt, now most of you know when Jackie and me do it we end up falling out, and many years ago "yes I did put her out of the car at a bus stop. Well got used to finishing in the bottom 3 or 4, but this year was going to be different!! .....Or was it??

Soon after leaving the start I found I had a navigator that (a) could not read (b) could not spell (c) could not write (d) could not see (e) was having great difficulty understanding numbers!! and kept telling me he would be sick if he had to stay in the passenger seat. At this point I was sure I had Jackie in the car, and not my manly mate Kevin Knowles.

It was also about this time that we stated to get a car full of some sort of methane gas from one of the rear passengers!! So getting out of the car to look for clues was a big help. It was also about now that Kelly started to read the instructions from the rear of the car, and we started to get somewhere. With Wayne texting I think "Malcolm Wilson" all day and Jamie asking Kevin about the order of some numbers, all seemed to be going well.

Arriving at the finish I thought we may have done ok, then Vince started to call out the finishing order, starting with last first, and it wasn't us! The next 2 places went to some other crews (ha this is better than me and Jackie). Suddenly names that have always been in front of me where called out, Vince then said so now the top 3!!

In 3rd place ..... Brian Hodges and his team,

A very big thank you to my team, and an even bigger thank you to Vince and his brother for a great day out.

FAMILY QUIZ NIGHT
TUESDAY DECEMBER 16TH 2008

The second club night in December saw what is now an annual tradition of the Family quiz night. A final selection of six teams gathered for an assortment of puzzles. They were the Old farts, Bombay mix, Maissee, Know hoppers, Mad rush and Bubble & squeak [you know who you are]

The evening opened with the issue of "Identify the personality" – a selection of famous people in unusual situations or poses.

Bombay mix won this with a score of 26/50.

Name that tune created its usual groans with some of the selections. However it couldn't have been too bad with the winners, Know hoppers, scoring 42/60.

The dingbats quiz proved a lot easier than last year with joint 4-way winners of Bombay mix, maissee, know hoppers and mad rush all scoring 6/8.

A welcome half way break enabled the teams to have a toilet break and replenish glasses. There was some food laid on in the form of a nuffet [in-between nibbles and a buffet] and loads of raffle tickets got sold.

Commencing the second half was the infamous "On the buzzer" round. The first two teams are picked at random with the winning team remaining to play the next team. For the !! Year running Bombay mix was one of the first two teams drawn and remained through all the rounds to be the winner.

The final competition was a movie picture quiz with winning team, Bombay mix, getting 9/10.

If this has whetted your appetite please pencil in your diary NOW Tuesday December 15th. It would be nice to get 2 or 3 more teams for next year.

I would like to thank all who attended for making the evening a success. A special thank you to those who donated raffle prizes and/or donations to the "Nuffet". - Vince

Stage rally 2009

It WILL happen in 2009 – at Fulbeck airfield near Newark in September.

It is with sadness I have to inform the the club of the death of Morris Wakefield "Mog" a lot will know Mog being the Dad of Jeff Wakefield. Some will remember Mog as the old chap in the Mini, he was nearly 50 when he started rallying! - Brian Hodges

Dukeries Motor Club has invited CDMC to help run the Clipstone South stage on this years Robin Hood Forest Stages Rally

14th March 2009 (SS2) signing on between 17.20 and 17.50 hours (Notional closing time 21.25 hours)

15th March 2009 (SS7) signing on between 11.00 and 11.30 hours (Notional closing time 15.37 hours)

Both stages will run the whole entry (Historics & Moderns)

If you can help with marshalling or radio duties, please let Richard Ogan Know
